6. Bi Data. Age 28-30, residing in Bonn with another girl employed in Ministry of Commerce. University graduate, worked as a clerk in an office or factory in Vienna during World War II. Corresponds with mother in East Germany. Brother died during war.
7. AVH Function. Agent in German Ministry of Commerce.
8. Performance. Prior to recruitment was helpful to JUNKER in his commercial dealings.
9. Production.
 - a. In 1952 reported that a Section Chief Frau KROLL (phon) of the Ministry had information concerning illegal dealings of JUNKER.
 - b. Reported that Americans were aware of JUNKER's illegal deals.
 - c. Assisted in putting through one commercial deal against resistance within the Ministry.
 - d. Reported on West German-Greek commercial negotiations.
10. Motivation. Primarily affection and erotic attraction for JUNKER. Described as politically undeveloped, but has been indoctrinated by JUNKER with sympathy for Peoples Democracies and antipathy for America. Has a fear of the Russians. Will accept money.
11. Recruitment. Contact established in 1951. Information furnished on casual basis until April 1953, by which time Agent was deeply in love with JUNKER. Recruited during a date at an expensive restaurant on 10 April 1953, by an unspecified Hungarian organization. The date planned for the recruitment to be made on business grounds and the motivation to be reinforced by promise of money.
12. Operational Structure. Meetings occurred early in the morning in JUNKER's office. The relationship was one of a lover-husband, with JUNKER's wife being a known figure. The recruitment occurred during JUNKER's visit to Bonn, and was made on business grounds after the recruitment to which he had been recruited.

1. There is no Headquarters interest in the use of [] in the capacity outlined in reference due to the fact that the appropriate section already has leads to the mission and, secondly, that ^{Karoly} JUNGER was recalled in April.

2. We have just been advised that OGPAL conducts surveillance of all such installations and it is suggested that MOE coordinate such operations with FHB prior to the dispatch of an agent on a mission such as that set forth in reference.
